Writing Workshop

JUMP START YOUR WRITING

with Author Coleen Paratore at Caldwell Lake George Library

Saturday, January 28th, 11:00am
336 Canada St., Lake George

In this light-hearted, interactive workshop, prolific author Coleen Murtagh Paratore will lead participants through several write-and-share rounds sure to inspire and jump-start that “something” you’ve always wanted to write. Coleen is the best-selling, award-winning author of 22 books across multiple genres, including picture books, novels, series, historical fiction, and inspirational memoir, with mega-publishers Simon & Schuster, Scholastic Press, Sourcebooks and more. Her latest book, Dear Writer: Inspiration and Advice on Writing, is her “love letter” to writers and artists, into which she poured what she’s learned to be “true and encouraging” about writing and the creative life from her nearly two decades as a published author, writing teacher, and book coach. Copies of her new book will be available for purchase. Space is limited. Call (518) 668-2528 to register.

Julie Johnson Dowd Art Exhibit

Johnson Dowd Exhibit in the Art Corner

Julie Johnson Dowd is a local wildlife photographer who noticed two things at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic: fewer people, more wildlife. The more she looked throughout her walks, the deeper she felt peace come from her connection to the water, the waves, and the wildlife, be they the common seagulls or the more impressive loons. She began documenting what she saw while she meandered, and each trip led to new discoveries, and even more photographs.

Her work will be on exhibit in the Art Corner at the Library all January!

Project Local is brought to you in partnership with the Lake George Arts Project.
