Project Local: Maria DeAngelo

ON DISPLAY MARCH-APRIL

ARTIST RECEPTION:

THURSDAY, APRIL 24TH, 6:00 PM

LOCATION:

336 CANADA STREET

LAKE GEORGE, NY 12845

Our next Project Local exhibition features the unique work of Maria DeAngelo. Ms. DeAngelo reflects, "Each of the paintings in this show contains scraps of my life. Some are precious, my parents' love letters and my grandfather's college notes, while others are more common, the bits of a mylar birthday balloon or a piece of paint stained paper towel I cleaned my tools with. The "canvas" of the works are playing cards, each collaged with life pieces held together with paint. Some I have stitched together, a skill learned from my mother, that I find myself returning to in cycles within my creative life. The stitches are a tool I used to combine the parts of these works and "draw" with line and color. When creating this body of work, I gave myself the challenge to limit the color palette of the backgrounds to five colors that I used in varied amounts in every piece in the show."

Ms. DeAngelo's paintings will be on display at the library from March-April. A reception will be held on Thursday, April 24th at 6:00 pm. Project Local is held in partnership with the Lake George Arts Project.

The Caldwell-Lake George Library Book Club will meet on Wednesday, March 12th at 6:30 pm to discuss The Midnight Library by Matt Haig. Somewhere out beyond the edge of the universe there is a library that contains an infinite number of books, each one the story of another reality. One tells the story of your life as it is, along with another book for the other life you could have lived if you had made a different choice at any point in your life. While we all wonder how our lives might have been, what if you had the chance to go to the library and see for yourself? Would any of these other lives truly be better?

The group gathers at 6:30 pm and discussion begins at 7:00 pm. New members are always welcome.
